Dear Parents,

The Scholastic Book Fair is coming to Winklebury!

We are holding a Federation book fair from Tuesday 14th March to Friday 17th March inclusive with books suitable for infant and junior aged children. The fair will be held in the Infant library from 2.30pm to 3.30 pm each. Please come along and have a look – your child can come with you but please collect them as usual at the end of the day and then make your way to the book fair. Please enter and exit the book fair school through the outside door next to the library.

The children will have the opportunity to look at the books on Tuesday during the school day. Over the last few years, the book fair has become more and more popular. This year in order to try to manage the number of people who want to attend and prevent long queues, we are asking that Infant families visit the book fair on Tuesday and Thursday and junior families visit the book fair on Wednesday and Friday.

Junior aged children are welcome to attend the book fair without an adult but:

- Money must be sent to school with your child in an envelope marked for the purpose which your child must hand to their class teacher for safe keeping.
- We will assume, if your child brings money for a book to school, that he/she has your permission for choosing what he/she buys – the book fair sells stationary as well as books so your child may choose to buy those. We will advise your child about a book suitable for an age-range but the final decision will be your child's. If you are uncertain your child will make a sensible choice, please come along with him/her!

The £1 World Book Day vouchers that will be given to the children can be used as part payment towards any of the books.

We look forward to welcoming you to our book fair.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs K Bartlett
Deputy Head of Federation
